GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS TO APPLICANTS

- Incomplete applications, or applications submitted after the prescribed deadline shall be summarily rejected. No correspondence regarding incomplete or late applications shall be entertained.
- The eligibility of candidates shall be determined with reference to the qualifications, experience, publications and other credentials acquired on or before the last date prescribed for the submission of applications.
- Degrees and other qualifications must have been awarded by recognised universities or institutions of repute. In the case of M.Phil. or Ph.D. degrees obtained from foreign universities, the University shall determine the equivalence of such qualifications in accordance with the applicable regulations.
- The period spent in acquiring an M.Phil. and/or Ph.D. degree shall not be counted towards teaching or research experience. However, the period of active service spent pursuing a research degree while simultaneously discharging teaching responsibilities, without availing any leave, shall be counted as teaching experience.
- The prescribed qualifications and experience are the minimum requirements, and the mere fulfilment of these requirements shall not entitle a candidate to be called for an interview. Where the number of applications received is large, the University reserves the right to restrict the number of candidates called for further stages of selection based on academic record, qualifications, experience, publications and overall suitability.
- The University reserves the right to conduct a written test, seminar, presentation, interview, or any other assessment process in online mode, offline mode, or a combination of both modes, as deemed appropriate.
- Candidates employed in government departments, autonomous organizations, public sector undertakings or similar institutions shall either submit their applications through the proper channel or provide an undertaking to produce a No Objection Certificate at the time of the interview.
- Candidates selected for an interview shall be required to produce original certificates, testimonials and valid photo identification for verification.
- All communications regarding shortlisting, interviews and final selection shall be made exclusively through email. Candidates are therefore advised to provide an active email address and regularly monitor the same.
- No request for modification, alteration or deletion of information submitted in the application form shall be entertained.
- The University reserves the right to use any of the advertised positions for other purposes.
- The University further reserves the right to apply any of the advertised positions against the advertisement.
- Appointment to any position shall be subject to verification of antecedents, credentials and original documents. If any information furnished by a candidate is found to be false, misleading, fabricated or deliberately concealed, the candidature or appointment shall be canceled immediately.
- Candidates shall submit an undertaking confirming that all publications submitted by them are original and free from plagiarism. Any instance of plagiarism detected subsequently shall result in the cancellation of candidature or termination of service, as the case may be.
- Selected candidates shall be required to execute an employment contract with the University.
- Candidates serving in Central Universities, higher educational institutions or other organisations may be considered for appointment on deputation or lien, subject to the applicable rules and regulations.
- The selected candidates shall ordinarily be required to serve at the University's campus in Rajgir, Nalanda district, Bihar, and should therefore be willing to relocate accordingly.
- No travelling allowance (TA) or daily allowance (DA) shall be admissible for attending interviews or other stages of the selection process unless specifically notified otherwise.
- Any corrigendum, clarification, addendum or modification relating to the advertisement shall be uploaded exclusively on the University website. Applicants are advised to visit the website regularly for updates.
- The University reserves the right to modify, withdraw or cancel any communication issued to a candidate at any stage of the recruitment process in the event of any inadvertent error.
- The decision of the University in all matters relating to eligibility, shortlisting, selection and appointment shall be final and binding, and no correspondence in this regard shall be entertained. Any form of canvassing shall lead to the disqualification of the candidature.
- In the event of any dispute arising out of the recruitment process, the courts having jurisdiction in Patna, Bihar, shall have exclusive jurisdiction.
- The candidates who have applied earlier are required to apply afresh.
- The interested applicants may visit the website www.nalandauniv.edu.in to learn about the University.
